Public Private Partnership for the Providence Intermodal Transportation Center

March 17, 2017
The Way it Was…

Current Rail Alignment & Station Location

Track Relocation & Providence Station Construction (early 1980’s)

Providence Station: Opened in 1986 and was the first building in Capital Center
Current Day Capital Center Special Development District
Transportation Overview

Diagram showing rail routes from New York to Boston passing through Providence. Stations include Providence Station, Kennedy Plaza, Route 128, and Back Bay. The diagram indicates services such as MBTA NE Regional and Acela.
Bond Issuance

MOVERI FORWARD
YES ON 6
MODERN TRANSIT FOR A BETTER ECONOMY
Providence Intermodal Transportation Center Vision